DCS Global Named 2019 Best in KLAS for Patient Access Solutions

Recognition from independent, healthcare IT insights company affirms commitment to delivering superior solutions to help providers

DALLAS – January 31, 2019 – DCS Global (“the Company”), a leading provider of healthcare patient access and revenue cycle technology solutions, announced today that it has earned the 2019 Best in KLAS award for the Patient Access category. The award is based on customer comments and insights and reflects the Company’s close connection with and unmatched service to its clients. Healthcare leaders, and their patients, continue to achieve incomparable value by using the DCS technology platform.

“The real story here comes from the voice of the healthcare professionals we serve. The substantial outcomes they achieve in using DCS Global technology is paramount to how KLAS measures value, and it is an honor to be independently recognized as a decisive Best in KLAS leader helping our partners achieve superior results,” said Steven Huddleston, CEO of DCS Global. “That honor is shared by my colleagues, whose hard work and commitment to excellence is what powers our company.”

Adam Gale, President of KLAS, commented, “Best in KLAS raises the bar for healthcare technology. Providers and payers demand better performance, usability, and interoperability. Ultimately, Best in KLAS helps foster greater value in the healthcare technology market from which providers can select the tools they need to facilitate superior care and improved outcomes.”

Huddleston also noted that winners in the rapidly changing healthcare technology landscape will deliver comprehensive and integrated solutions that encompass robust analytic and patient insight capabilities. “Providers want partners who can integrate with existing EMR systems while providing innovative and seamless solutions that yield discernable value, as defined in terms of both financial results and patient experience.”
